MISSION

The Derrick Thomas/Neil Smith Third and Long Foundation strives to “sack” illiteracy by providing the support necessary to improve reading skills of students in the Greater Kansas City area.

The Reading Program students have weekly enrichment, reading and tutorial activities. Certified instructors as well as community volunteers are teamed with small groups of students to provide motivational and supportive instruction promoting literacy.

The proceeds from this tournament will benefit the Derrick Thomas/Neil Smith Third and Long Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization.
